July 2026

Welcome to July!

As temperatures in our neighborhood reach the 90s, it's a perfect day to spend the morning inside, scrolling through pictures we recently received from our Remarkable Style event. Even though it's roasting outside, these pictures of our guests, participants, and volunteers bring an added dose of warmth to my heart — and I don't even mind.

Remarkable Style guest, Brinkley, with some Remarkable merch.

As I moved from looking back at Remarkable Style to reviewing all of the other experiences our participants have had this month, one theme kept showing up again and again: community connection. We had a group of participants receive recognition for their volunteer work at another local nonprofit. We've got Day and Youth Services making some pretty sweet memories with the help of community partners, both on and off site. We've got six different businesses helping us raise extra funds to support our participants in their quest to live lives full of opportunity. We're making art alongside others in our neighborhoods. It's community connection on repeat.

This is only possible with the support of our donors, community partners, wonderful staff, and participant enthusiasm. Please take a moment to read about these connections. Thank you, as always, for your support!

Staff and Associate Milestones

Earlier this month, Remarkable was invited to the Christine Ann Domestic Abuse Services, Inc. Volunteer picnic, where we were recognized as the Volunteer Group of the Year.

Since July 2025, each of the members of this incredible group has donated 161 hours of their time to support the Center. Their commitment, positivity, and teamwork have made a meaningful impact in their community.

Oshkosh Day/Youth Services Story

Day Services & Youth Services came together for a hoedown themed picnic! The weather was beautiful - a perfect day to enjoy some dancing and fun in our courtyard. Thanks to Dustin Lee Music's for brining the music!

Neenah Story

Neenah Day Services had a super snuggly visit at Kelley's Farmstead! Participants got to hold baby goats, bunnies, duckling, and pigs. Check out these smiles! It's easy to see that this visit was worth the drive!

Fundraising Updates

Remarkable Style

Thanks to the generosity of our community, sponsors, donors, volunteers, and attendees, we are thrilled to share that we raised more than $100,000 to support Remarkable's mission.

Restaurant Fundraisers: Mid-Year Review

Our initial goal for the year was to raise $3000 through one restaurant/business fundraiser per month. At the six-month mark, we've already surpassed our original goal! As of June 30, we've raised $3,340.30 to support Remarkable's participants. The businesses who partnered with us during the first half of 2026 are listed and linked below. As you visit these businesses, please consider thanking them for all they do in our community!

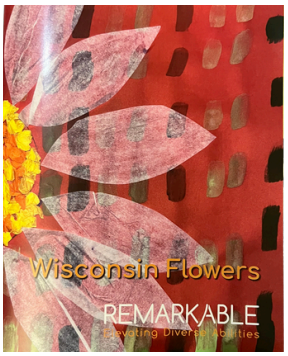
Featured Project: Wisconsin Flowers



One of our recent art projects has blossomed into something truly special! Wisconsin Flowers is a beautiful book featuring artwork created by Remarkable artists alongside information about Wisconsin flowers and Remarkable's programming. This project celebrates the creativity and talent of our artists while offering readers a meaningful look at the inspiration behind their work.

Books are available for $20. To order a copy, please contact Ona Montour at omontour@remarkablewi.org.

Artists in the Community

Our Community-Based Pre-Vocational (CBPV) Art Class partnered with the wonderful residents of Eden Meadows at Miravida Living for a special patriotic canvas painting activity in celebration of America's upcoming 250th birthday.

Participants and residents worked side by side, sharing creativity, conversation, and plenty of smiles while creating beautiful red, white, and blue masterpieces. This collaborative experience provided meaningful opportunities to build relationships, strengthen community connections, and celebrate an important milestone together.

Thank you to the residents and staff at Eden Meadows for welcoming us and making this event so memorable. We look forward to more opportunities to create, connect, and celebrate together!
